

Graduate characteristics and Learning Outcomes in Jazan University

University vision: To be a regionally distinguished university in terms of educational outputs, innovative research, and community service.

University mission: We teach, do research and innovate to contribute in building a vibrant society.

Alumni characteristics:

1. Passion for knowledge, continuous research and practical application of knowledge.
2. The ability to solve problems and make decisions.
3. Commitment to values, ethics and responsibility.
4. Digital communication.
5. Effective Communication and Negotiation
6. Leadership, and teamwork
7. Professional scientific ethics.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Assessment of sufficient information to analyze and clarify theories, concepts, principles, skills and practices in various disciplines, (knowledge and understanding).
2. Demonstrate the leadership qualities and skills necessary in effective communication and negotiation with others, orally and in writing. (mental skills and values)
3. Commitment to professional and ethical behaviors and demonstrating team spirit (values).
4. Skillfully applying independent and critical thinking to solving serious problems (intellectual skills).
5. Applying sustainable learning skills in all scientific and societal aspects relevant to environmental, economic and social issues (values).
6. Effectively applying the skills and ethics of scientific research, innovation and creativity. (Intellectual skills and values).
7. Applying knowledge by mastering practical skills (practical skills).

Deanship of Academic Development

رؤية
VISION
2030
المملكة العربية السعودية
KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA