CAREER OBJECTIVE

A dedicated and hard-working teacher with the ability to encourage creativity and improve student performance. I use my energetic attitude to impress the same on my students and to teach them with great enthusiasm. Maintain good relations with my students, colleagues, and administration.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS AND GOALS

I'm hardworking and creative and believe in being a committed mentor to all my wards.

To approach everything with a positive outlook.

My ultimate goal is to promote learning for which I have shown my students my passion for the subject, knowledge, and expertise.

Strong communication skills, patient and approachable.

As a teacher, I always believe in having an impact on my students. I'm first a learner and then wish to transfer that which I have learnt to my students,

I believe in being accessible to every student and being mindful of their needs.

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY.

My teaching philosophy is simple, I would like my students to be independent learners after an initial teaching process.

To inculcate in them the to read more, know more and research more.

Grades are of prime importance, but being able to master what they learn is the highlight of learning.
