

AAMAL ALFAQIH

English Language Lecturer
(TESOL)

ABOUT ME

As an English lecturer with over 9 years of experience teaching English at different levels at Jazan University, I am passionate about investigating the difficulties and the problems that undergraduate students face while learning and developing effective techniques to teach and help them improve their skills. I am committed to producing high-quality and engaging activities that promote students' motivation for learning. I am seeking a challenging role in a reputable educational organization where I can utilize my skills in research to contribute to the organization's success while advancing my career as a potential professor.
