

Hind Ahmad M Shafi

Email: hshafi@jazanu.edu.sa

Nice3000007@gmail.com

Mobile: (+966)583787119

Languages:

Arabic: Native

English: Second language

Education:

January 2017- December 2018 Master of Arts English, Missouri State University – the U.S.

August 2010 – August 2013, Bachelor's Degree of English Language, Jizan University,

KSA

Skills

Writing skills, speaking skills, listening skills, reading skills, communication skills, critical thinking, problem- Solving, flexibility teamwork organization, creativity, emotional intelligence, attention of detail, computer skills and responsibility

Experience:

January 2017 to March 2017 (I observed two institute like OTC ELI, and three schools in America.)

February 2018 to March 2018 (I was a tutor grammar for ten students in ELI for three weeks.)

March 2018 to May 2018 (I taught five native English speakers who were between 19-22-year-old how to develop their writing skills for two months.)

March 2018 to May 2018 (I was tutor in Writing Center two months.)

August 2019 – currently (I am a teacher at ELI, Jazan university)

February2020- March 2021 (assigned as a member of the unit of Student Activities.)

August 2021- Currently (I am an assistant coordinator at the College of Applied)

Courses

October 2016 English course at ELI in the U.S.

December 2013- Microsoft offices

Rewards

December 2018 Certificate program in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Language, Missouri State University – the U.S.

February – March 2018 Khebrat Student Ambassador Certificate of Appreciation A statement of My Teaching Philosophy

I enjoy lecturing, and I'm good at it. I always make an effort to engage and motivate my students when I lecture and I give them the motivation to speak with me and with their partners.

I believe that beginning English learners should be introduced to how to speak, write, read, and listen to skills. Learning this methodology energizes understudies to think autonomously, they develop how to speak without mistakes and afraid, how to read and understand most of the vocabulary, and how to write paragraphs. Furthermore, they should develop critical thinking skills they can apply to other areas of their lives. Small group work is a crucial tool for teaching and a good method to acquire a new language. More important that the teacher should create an environment in which all students may learn, but it is the responsibility of the students to really learn.

Interests

- Developing Technology
- Creative Writing group and I have written many short stories, essays, journals, and three research.
- Reading many articles and books.
- Drawing
- Chess
- Travel, cultures, and languages.
- Photography.
- Editing Videos