Philosophy of my teaching:

"I believe that there are five essential elements that are conducive to learning. (1) The teacher's role is to act as a guide. (2) Students must have access to hands-on activities. (3) Students should be able to have choices and let their curiosity direct their learning. (4) Students need the opportunity to practice skills in a safe environment. (5) Technology must be incorporated into the school day." "I believe that all students are unique and have something special that they can bring to their own education. I will assist my students to express themselves and accept themselves for who they are, as well embrace the differences of others." Every classroom has its own unique community; my role as the teacher will be to assist each student in developing her own potential and learning styles. I will present a curriculum that will incorporate each different learning style, as well as make the content relevant to the students' lives. I will incorporate hands-on learning, cooperative learning, projects, themes, and individual work that engage and activate students learning."

Objective:

A sincere ESL language educator in different countries, including India, the Sultanate of Oman, and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, focusing on the sole benefit of the learner, I work in the field of building up the global link language among the youth as an English language educator. I am passionate about being a language imparter, committed, and dedicated professional with the acquired ability to teach, motivate, and direct students to maximum performance by encouraging them in a positive and energetic environment.
