

PLOS FOR THE BACHELOR'S PROGRAM IN ENGLISH

K1	Display considerable understanding on the principles of language, literature, and linguistics.
K2	Recall significant knowledge related to the texts, terminologies, theories, and practices in literature, linguistics and translation studies
K3	Identify the academic relevance of linguistics and literature to current and emerging fields of inquiry
S1	Analyse learning content with the help of theories and applications in English language, linguistics and literature
S2	Practice established methods of enquiry, investigation required for research in English language, linguistics and literature
S3	Interpret texts for problem solving and for promoting thinking skills
S4	Utilize learning tools for exploring complex academic challenges of English language and its usage
C1	Foster an environment of learner autonomy through self-instructional strategies and collaborative learning
C2	Develop confidence, potentials for leadership and entrepreneurship through presentations, public speaking, and projects
C3	Promote professionalism through effective English language communication by employing multiple technological channels