

Jazan University

Deanship of Admission and Registration

Terms and Conditions of Internal Transfer

General Conditions

1. It is permissible for a student to transfer from a collage to another for once, and from a specialty to another inside the college for once throughout his academic life.
2. The preference of transfer applicants is based on the GPA and available seats.
3. The transfer application is to be done electronically via the student's academic account.
4. A student should have at least spent a semester at the specialty he needs to transfer from. Also, the number of credit hours that he has already passed should not be less than (12) in his transcript. In case a student desires to transfer to health specialties, he should at least spend a year at the specialty he wants to transfer from and should pass all the courses of the first year of the study plan.
5. The date of his admission at the University should not exceed four semesters (postponement semester is not considered while the withdrawn is counted in transfer. According to discontinuity, only transfer semester is considered).
6. Only regular a student of scientific specialties is permitted to transfer to health specialties.
7. A student is allowed only to select one compulsory choice and ten optional choices as maximum.
8. It is permissible for the student to change his mind and cancel his transfer request within a week of publishing the results through the student's academic account.

Special Conditions of Transfer Preference to Health Specialties

In addition to the general conditions, the following are stipulated for transfer preference from one of the scientific specialties to the health ones:

1. The student's GPA should not be less than 4.50 out of 5.00.
2. The student's qualifying percentage in the year of admission should not be less than the minimum qualifying percentage of admission to the specialty in the year of transfer. Exception is given if the student's GPA is 4.75 and more and does not exceed 3 points only.

Special Conditions of Transfer Preference to Scientific Specialties

In addition to the general conditions, the following are stipulated for transfer preference from the theoretical specialties to the scientific ones for the secondary school graduates (scientific track):

1. The student's GPA should not be less than 3.75 out of 5.00. Exception is given to the transfer to the Faculty of Sciences specialties where the GPA is not less than 2.
2. The student's qualifying percentage in the year of admission should not be less than the minimum qualifying percentage of admission to the specialty in the year of transfer. Exception is given if the student's GPA is 4.75 and more and does not exceed 3 points only.

Special conditions of transfer preference from the diploma to bachelor programs

In addition to the public conditions, the following are stipulated for the preference of transfer from one of the diploma programs at the Community College to one of the bachelor specialties:

1. The student's GPA should not be less than 4.50 out of 5. Preference is based upon the GPA of all transfer applications, and the available seats.
2. The student should not have previously transferred from a bachelor to a diploma or should not have been re-admitted in the diploma