B. Objectives

1. What is the main purpose for this course?

The course is designed to provide students a thorough foundation in the English language, which they can build on. It will help them develop their listening comprehension, oral and written communication and will equip them with basic vocabulary and grammar, thus it will improve students' proficiency level in English.

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

- predict a topic and guess the meaning of the most common new words in a text using contextual clues.
- skim for general ideas and scan for specific information.
- construct a paragraph about themselves, their friends, classmates, neighbor and family.
- apply the formalities of writing simple letters and e-mails.
- monitor their own error by correcting mistakes for example punctuation, spellings, prepositions, etc.
- start short informal conversations about a few limited topics.
- extract meaning from short conversations they hear about everyday topics.
- use appropriate linguistic structures and vocabulary to convey their ideas on a few general topics.

2. Briefly describe any plans for developing and improving the course that are being implemented. (e.g. increased use of IT or web based reference material, changes in content as a result of new research in the field)

- Decreasing group sizes, max. 30 students.
- Improving the infrastructure that the course requires (see point F)
- Purchasing and using all the materials available with the textbooks (Workbooks, Teacher's Book, other Teaching Supplements).
- Encouraging teachers to use CLT (Communicative Language Teaching) methodology in the class to make the class more relevant to students and to increase Student Talking Time.
- Incorporating new ideas into the course based on course reports and student feedback.
- Offering extra online practice materials for motivated students.

C. Course Description (Note: General description in the form used in Bulletin or handbook)

The Intensive English Language Course is designed to develop students' English language proficiency through the four language skills - Listening, Speaking, Reading, Writing - and Grammar.

Regarding READING SKILL, students will be dealing with different types of texts. They will learn how best to approach a text in the foreign language to guess the meaning of new words, to extract the main ideas and find specific information. They will realize the benefits of activating their background knowledge for comprehension.

As for WRITING SKILL, students will write brief compositions about various topics of their daily lives and find out about the rules of writing informal messages and e-mails. They will learn about the use of capital letters, titles, paragraph structure, signal words and simple conjunctions, e.g. 'and' or 'but'. They will learn the fundamental principles of prewriting, planning, drafting, revising, and editing as they move from sentence-level writing to guided paragraphs and email.

With regards to LISTENING AND SPEAKING SKILL, students will listen to audio tracks of daily conversations and practice comprehension with the help of context clues. They will be exposed to different accents at normal speed. They will also learn how to give reasons for argumentation, compare prices, start a conversation etc.

As for GRAMMAR, students will be able to use a few verb tenses, frequency adverbs, Yes-No and Wh- questions, time clauses, pronouns, prepositions of place and time etc. These will improve students' ability to express themselves.

4. Course Learning Outcomes in NQF Domains of Learning and Alignment with Assessment Methods and Teaching Strategy. All the 5 NQF Domains will be addressed during the course, however, the domain of Communication will be in focus to enable students to read, understand, speak and write, i.e. communicate in a foreign language. At the end of this course, students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> work in small groups to complete some simple tasks in case of small (max. 30 students) classes.

- predict a topic and guess the meaning of the most common new words in a text using contextual clues.
- skim for general ideas and scan for specific information.
- construct a paragraph about themselves, their friends, classmates, neighbor and family.
- apply the formalities of writing simple letters and e-mails.

- start short informal conversations about a few limited topics.
- extract meaning from short conversations they hear about everyday topics.
- use appropriate linguistic structures and vocabulary to convey their ideas on a few general topics.

Teachers will use methods of the Communicative Language Teaching Approach.

Student assessment will be ongoing formally through quizzes and exams and informally during the classes.

On the table below are the five NQF Learning Domains, numbered in the left column.

First, insert the suitable and measurable course learning outcomes required in the appropriate learning domains (see suggestions below the table). Second, insert supporting teaching strategies that fit and align with the assessment methods and intended learning outcomes. Third, insert appropriate assessment methods that accurately measure and evaluate the learning outcome. Each course learning outcomes, assessment method, and teaching strategy ought to reasonably fit and flow together as an integrated learning and teaching process. (Courses are not required to include learning outcomes from each domain.)

- Facebook Language Community

4. Other learning material such as computer-based programs/CD, professional standards or regulations and software.

Students are encouraged to use various computer-based language learning programs online and using CDs. They may also make the effective use of YouTube for watching English learning programs. They may consult English learning software like ELLIS, Side by Side, Berlitz English Premier, Rosetta Stone English, Instant Immersion English, WordSmart, EyeSpeak English, EF Englishtown Transparent Language and Tell Me More English.

F. Facilities Required

Indicate requirements for the course including size of classrooms and laboratories (i.e. number of seats in classrooms and laboratories, extent of computer access, etc.)

1. Accommodation (Classrooms, laboratories, demonstration rooms/labs, etc.)

- Lecture desk.
- Desks for students.
- Language Lab is necessary for the listening classes with desktops, speakers and internet facilities.

2. Technology resources (AV, data show, Smart Board, software, etc.)

- Internet and OHP
- speakers (For Listening & Speaking Class)
- Smart Board
- laptops (with internet facilities), .

3. Other resources (specify, e.g. if specific laboratory equipment is required, list requirements or attach list)

The minimum requirements:

- Whiteboard of good quality (to be used as a screen for video viewing as well)
- Whiteboard markers (a total of 3 sets of 4 pens for the course per group)
- Paper for photocopying quizzes and extra practice materials (a total of 5 packets per group)
- Photocopying and printing facilities for the teachers and the students.

Scheduling:

- single or double lessons per subject in 5 days per week at the beginning of the day.

G Course Evaluation and Improvement Processes

1. Strategies for Obtaining Student Feedback on Effectiveness of Teaching

- Student Survey,
- Student Questionnaire,
- Occasional student-faculty meetings to get students' feedback,
- Informal verbal feedback during the teaching and in the office hours.

2. Other Strategies for Evaluation of Teaching by the Instructor or by the Department

- Analysis of quiz and test results by the instructor,
- Analysis of test results by the ELC team coordinator,
- Analysis of test results by ELC.
- Coordinator or an unbiased expert may evaluate teaching through class observations planned and unplanned.

3. Processes for Improvement of Teaching

- By organizing different workshops on innovative teaching strategies in ESL learning abilities
- Skill teachers' meetings with the skill coordinators, (Grade Level Collaboration and Cooperation), sharing extra teaching materials.
- Arrangement of professional development conferences for creating a better work environment.
- Departmental meetings and workshops to share good practices

Recommended:

- Increasing student involvement by initiating events for showcasing student achievement (e.g. student projects) and encouraging students to use the online materials.
- Improving teaching and learning conditions.

4. Processes for Verifying Standards of Student Achievement (e.g. check marking by an independent member teaching staff of a sample of student work, periodic exchange and remarking of tests or a sample of assignments with staff at another institution)

- ELC Evaluation and Re-evaluation Committee revise sample exams.
- Analysis of examination results (Grade- Maximum, Minimum, Average mode).
- The exam papers are checked, rechecked and reviewed by the faculties to maintain impartiality and accuracy in marking.
- Students, who believe that they have been undergraded, can get their papers re-evaluated by the department committee.

5. Describe the planning arrangements for periodically reviewing course effectiveness and planning for improvement.

- Meeting will be arranged to discuss the effectiveness of the course plan.
- Evaluation and guidance to students who show weak performance.
- Benchmarking of course content and student performance with other similar programs at other universities.
- ELC's Curriculum Committee reviews the teaching methods and updates course syllabus to meet the students' changing needs.
